

Class of 09 of course.

Roblox, but to be more specific, ROOMS, before doors was really fun. The Library is a horror game which I loved, maybe I was foreshadowing.

Maxwell At Midnight and Slender were fun too, unfortunately both games are dead at the moment.

Ultimate Town Sandbox right now.

Also, Cardcaptor Sakura (no this is not a game it's a cry for help)

NOOBS IN COMBAT

I forgot the game on the app store, but I think it's like 2015. (wolf simulator?) I loved playing it, you just ran around and killed other animals and died.

Traffic Racer

Again, lost media, but I know in 2014 I played this one mobile car game where it was in the sky, I don't know what it was.

HEADACHE on roblox. It's a semi-copy but more fun version of a story game. It's a survival game, I really wish I could drop a link so there isn't miscommunication.
